Your turn —

Picture Tracker

Your Sweet Stuff Experiment, for younger scientists — draw it, then circle.

1. Draw the sweet thing you had.
2. Circle when, and how things were set up.
3. 30 minutes later, circle how your legs and your head felt.

Scientist: _____ Lab partner: _____

Felt nothing? Circle it. That's real data. — L.

Grown-ups: read the words aloud — your child does the drawing and circling.
